

REV. AMINA MCINTYRE

Rev. Amina S. McIntyre is an award-winning playwright developing scholarship, birthing crafts, and curating spaces for individuals and groups to deepen their creative faith journeys. An Atlanta native, she received her BA from Colby College, MA from Indiana University, MFA from Spalding University and Masters of Theological Studies from Emory University. Most recently, received commissions to write for theatres and companies such as Actor's Express, Oakland Cemetery, Out of Hand, and Odyssey Impact. McIntyre is an Elder in Full Connection in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, 2016-2021 President of the Connectional Young Adult Ministry, and a currently a Ph. D Student in Religion at Vanderbilt University. Her life's work is to develop spaces for artists, ministers, and scholars to rest and restore to be better equipped to help the community.

Toya Sherresse' (Pronounced like Sher-Reese) Antoinette McQueen was born on July 14, 1995. She is the youngest child born to Mr. Selvain and Mrs. Terisa Moore-McQueen. She attends New Hope CME Church in Columbus, MS under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Cornelia Naylor. After graduating from New Hope High School, she matriculated to Mississippi University for Women (MUW). Where she graduated with a B.S. Degree in Legal Studies and a minor in Political Science. She is now a student in the M.A. of Women's Leadership program at MUW. She is also a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Toya is very active with the Women's Missionary Society, serving as the Columbus-Meridian District and MS-South Region Phyllis H. Bedford Secretary. She also serves as the Young Adult President, Co-Chair of the CIT Ministry and College Ministry for the Columbus-Meridian District. She also serves as the MS-South Region Young Adult President as well. Toya also serves as the secretary for the Connectional Young Adult Ministry of the CME Church or the 2016-2021 Administration.

TOYA MCQUEEN

Jamea Grace, daughter of Tina Perry and Michael Grace Sr. is a member of Parkwood Institutional Christian Methodist Episcopal Church in Charlotte, NC. She previously held membership at Hanes Memorial CME Church for over 20 years. Service is one of the characteristics that helps me lead a Christ Centered life. I currently represent the 7th Episcopal District on the General Connectional Board. For 8 years, I had the honor of serving as the Carolina Region Young Adult President. I was previously the YA President for the Winston-Salem/Greenville District and an influential member of the Young Adult Council at Hanes Memorial CME Church. I currently serve as the Assistant Secretary of the Connectional Young Adult Ministry. A graduate of North Carolina A&T State University with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting. I am employed as an accountant with Childress Klein- a property management company in Charlotte, NC.

JAMEA GRACE

TIFFANIE THOMPSON

Ms. Tiffanie Thompson is a passionate advocate who loves to serve her community and her church. A resident of Birmingham, Alabama, she serves as Principal Administrator of Governmental Affairs within the Office of Mayor Randall Woodfin. A graduate of Auburn University with a B.S. in Aerospace Engineering, an M.S. in Aviation Management, and a Minor in Dance.

Ms. Thompson holds a host of positions within the church: Sunday Church School Teacher, District Missionary VP, Joint Board of Finance, General Connectional Board, 5th Episcopal Missionary Institute Director, the Connectional Young Adult Treasurer, and newly elected President of the CYAM for 2021-2024. She is also an active participant in the Congressional Black Caucus Institute.

REV. KENNETH PETTIGREW

Rev. Kenneth A. Pettigrew is the 2016-2021 CYAM Chaplain. A lover of liturgy and all things churchy, he is working towards his Doctor of Ministry at Columbia Theological Seminary to continue his service to the church. He's a member of the Superlative Seventh and has served in all levels of the Young Adult ministry.

MICHAELA USHER

Michaela Usher is a senior music major at Lane College and a member of Bethel C.M.E Church of Milwaukee, WI. Michaela has served as choir director and co-director of the social media department at her local church for seven years. She has served in numerous capacities in young adult ministry within her local church and episcopal district. During the past three years, Michaela served as the Third Episcopal Representative for the Connectional Young Adult Ministry. As a representative, Michaela served on the creative worship committee. In addition to her work within the church, Michaela is a professional songwriter, singer, actress, and a vocal coach. She is also the owner of Truenos Artist Workshop, which promotes excellence in arts ministry through professional training. Currently, Michaela Usher is the chairman of the Board of Directors for the Lane College's Final Authority Choral Program and a junior artist for Opera Memphis.

The Rev. Dr. Maurice Alexander Harden earned, a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Livingstone College. He then went on to Hood Theological Seminary, Salisbury, NC where he received a Master of Divinity. At the age of 28 he received the Doctor of Ministry degree from Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C.

Dr. Harden has served in various capacities in his community and in the A.M.E. Zion Church which includes: Representative to the Pan- Methodist Commission, Campus Minister for Clinton College, Founding President of My Brothers Keeper-Rock Hill, Member of the Discipline Codification Commission, Statistics and Records Board of the A.M.E. Zion Church and Financial Secretary for the International Ministers and Lay Association of the A.M.E. Zion Church. He is currently serving as the Pastor of Rush Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church, Raleigh, NC.

CRYSTAL CUNNINGHAM

Exhorter Thelma “Princess” Woodard is an goal-oriented educator, who works with all persons to help them find peace and understanding in a chaotic world. Princess utilizes her education, gifts, and talents to advance small business owners and new entrepreneurs in her community. She is a nationally certified bookkeeper, and is currently the Executive Assistant and Controller of a locally owned and operated craft beer manufacturer in Lake Charles, Louisiana. She also serves as a sales tax consultant. Princess holds an Occupational Studies and Applied Accounting Principles degrees from Delta Technical College and a degree in business and finance from the University of Phoenix. She is currently studying to obtain her MBA. Princess is an active member of Williams Chapel in Moss Bluff, LA. She has worked vigorously in the 4th Episcopal District’s South Louisiana Annual Conference. A resident and member of the Crowley District, she serves as the Young Adult Council President, District Choir Director and Audio/Visual Consultant. She also serves as the Crowley District Missionary Society Secretary (2015-Current), South Louisiana Region Scrapbook Chair (2014-Current), Connectional Young Adult Ministry Representative 4th Episcopal District (2016-2021), where she is the Social Justice & Missions Committee Chair. She has also served as the Vice President of South Louisiana Region Missionary Society (2012-2015) and as the Rossie T. Hollis Departmental Secretary (2016-2017).

THELMA PRINCESS WOODARD

Cheri M. Hamilton, Esquire is a native of Charlotte, North Carolina and a life-long CME. Cheri was reared at Parkwood Institutional in Charlotte, N.C., where she is a current member, and is a former member of Israel Metropolitan in Washington, D.C. where she served in various roles and ministries. She is currently the outgoing Seventh Episcopal Representative to the CYAM.

Professionally, Cheri currently serves as a Hearing Examiner (Administrative Judge) for the State of Maryland & also serves as legal counsel for the 7th Episcopal District.

CHERI HAMILTON

Christian Education Director for Bullock Chapel CME, Quitney Pryor strives to inspire & equip all age groups to follow Jesus Christ. Currently fulfilling a five-year term as Connectional Young Adult Episcopal Representative for Texas/Jamaica + the Commission on Life & Witness. Alongside these ministries, Quitney is also a Local Preacher, Praise Dance Coordinator and Region Youth Director. Trained as an educator from Texas Women's University, Quitney enjoys uplifting others in every area she is blessed to share whether teaching or working in her occupation as an Operations Manager for Target Food Distribution Center. Recently Quitney started her Masters of Ministry journey at Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

QUITNEY PRYOR

ORDER OF JUDAH

DANICA HENDERSON

ORDER OF JUDAH

DANIEL NICODEMUS

REV.
GENERALD
FLEMING

ORDER OF JUDAH

XAVIER WILLIAMS

BARBARA CAMPBELL

Dr. Barbara Christian Campbell is a fourth generation member of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. She is an active member of Shy Temple CME where her pastor is Dr. James C. Clements. Her roles at Shy include being the Director of Christian Education, Sunday School teacher and social concerns chairperson. As the first and only female elected President of the Connectional Lay Council Ministry she has traveled to all 11 Episcopal Districts. Serving as the Social Concerns Chair for the Ga. North Region she promotes social action issues to keep the church engaged and involved. She is the first female elected to serve as the African American Caucus Chair for the state of Georgia DPG. Her honors include being elected a delegate to the DNC for Obama (twice) Hillary Clinton and most recently, Joe Biden. Dr. Campbell is the only lay person to serve as the Coordinator for the Youth and Young Adult Connectional Conference. Passionate, persistent, performance driven and personable are just some of the qualities that contribute to her exemplary leadership skills.

RONZA ANDERSON, JR.

Ronza J. Anderson Jr. is the son of Ronza and Patricia Anderson. He was born in Jackson, MS. He is a 2014 Honor graduate of Provine High School where he played on the Rams Football Team, and served as SGA President. Ronza was also involved in many other activities during his time there. He is a 2018 Magna Cum Laude graduate from Jackson State University, where he was the starting Long Snapper of the Tiger Football team. Ronza was named to the All SWAC Academic Team, and he is a receipt of the Arthur Ashe Award. He was a Mass Communications major, with a Minor in Business Administration. Ronza is a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, and he is a member of the Phillips Metropolitan CME Church in Hartford, Connecticut, where he serves as the Audio and Video Ministry Director. He is currently an Associate Operator at ESPN Headquarters in Bristol, Connecticut; where he has worked on shows such as SportsCenter, Get Up, First Take, College GameDay, and the Heisman Trophy Finalist Reveal Show.

KEIAH FLOWERS

Keiah Flowers is a marketing manager and hospitality professional currently living in Birmingham, Alabama. Studying graphic design, she has continued her focus on photography, web design, print and digital content in her professional development. Also during her studies at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, she had art work selected and shown in exhibitions including the 39th Annual DAAH Student Juried Exhibition. One thing that's absolute about Keiah? She's always willing to talk about plants!

Shannon is the daughter of the Rev. Mary L. and the late Rev. Clinton L. Washington. The 5th of 6 children, She began working in the church very early in life. During her father's tenure as a pastor, she attended the Ministerial Exam training sessions he held for local preachers and there she learned to love the CME Church. As a teen, she was involved with the CYF and the Choir. She directed and was the musician for the Youth and Young Adult choir until she went off to college. She is a 2007 graduate of Little Rock Central High School and attended Lane College. She also has a certification in Hospitality and Tourism Management from Florida Atlantic University.

Shannon serves as the Arkansas Region Youth Adult Director, President, Arkansas Region East District Missionary Society and Technology Lead for the General Department of Evangelism and Missions.

Shannon is a Project Manager for PatientPoint and is the mother of one daughter, Candace. Her favorite scriptures are Romans 8:28 and Jeremiah 29:11 and uses them as motivation each day.

SHANNON WASHINGTON

Pastor Dale D. Dennis, II is the Lead Pastor of the Hoyt Memorial C.M.E. Church in Wilmington, DE. Pastor Dale is an ordained Elder in Full Connection in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. In addition to pastoral service, he serves as Minister of Music of the New York – Washington Region of the CME Church. He also serves as the Musical Director of the CME Church's Connectional Young Adult Ministry. Pastor Dale is also President of the Philadelphia & Vicinity CME Ministerial Alliance. Rev. Dennis has traveled near and far sharing the good news of Jesus Christ. Ministry has afforded him many great honors, but his greatest joy comes from being the father of Miss Kayla Nicole Dennis. He is committed to serving God and lifting the name of Jesus. It is his mission to allow the Lord to use him to bring a message of life, hope, faith and redemption to a dying world by proclaiming the unadulterated word of God and ministering through music. Pastor Dale operates under the mantra "Ducit Multis Ad Unum" which means "Leading Many to One."

REV. DALE DENNIS

Rev. Leon F. Parker, III is the pastor of St. Luke Christian Methodist Episcopal Church located in Nashville, Tennessee. He is a proud graduate of Miles College, Birmingham, AL. While attending Miles, he served as Student Intern and later staff member to the President's Office and the Office of Institutional Effectiveness, Research and Fundraising where he gained his grant writing and fundraising skills. Rev. Parker is also a proud graduate of Phillips School of Theology at the ITC where he also served as 2014-2015 Student Christian League President. He is an ordained Elder in Full Connection in the CME Church and has served exceptionally in Alabama, Georgia, and presently Tennessee. Rev. Parker currently serves as the Vice-Chairman of the St. Luke Housing Ministry which provides affordable housing for senior citizens. He also serves as national secretary of One Church One School. Parker is married to Rev. Nathalie Nelson Parker and they are the proud parents of Leon F. Parker, IV.

LEON F.
PARKER

Born December 16, 1987 to Janice Whitby. 117 years to the exact date of the founding of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, not by accident as his great grandmother would often say he's going to be a preacher. Reared in the Bethel CME Church in Macon, Ga where he was actively involved. Andre is a 2006 Graduate of Central Fellowship Christian Academy where he was Class Chaplain, 4 sport letterman as well as lettering in ONE Act. Andre is a life long learner as he graduated from Lane College, Liberty University, Phillips School of Theology. Andre is a Father and a Husband. He is currently proud pastor of the Westside Community Church in Atlanta, Ga.

REV. ANDRE
LOYD